

Become a Trails and Rails Program Volunteer

Trails and Rails Volunteer Program

- Is a nationwide program sponsored by Amtrak and the National Park Service aboard select Amtrak trains.
- Volunteers answer passenger questions, give directions, and present a program to Amtrak passengers of all ages and backgrounds.

Lincoln Home National Historic Site's program

- Volunteers provide educational talks and a "show and tell" program on the Lincoln Service 302 train from Springfield, IL to Chicago, IL, and on the Texas Eagle 21 train from Chicago, IL back to Springfield, IL.
- The program operates on Fridays, Saturdays, Sundays, & Mondays from May 24 through September 2; on Saturdays and Sundays from September 7 through October 27.
- Each train trip begins at 7:45 a.m. at the Springfield Amtrak station and ends when the Texas Eagle returns to Springfield around 5:30 p.m.

Meals

- Volunteers are provided one meal and free train fare.

Uniform

- Volunteers are provided with a uniform shirt; volunteers provide their own khaki or tan trousers or skirt, black or brown belt, socks, and heeled shoes.

Number of Trips

- Volunteers make one or more trips per month, after their four training trips.

Training

- The training consists of about 16-24 hours of self-study, 16 hours of classroom training, periodic in-service training, and 4 training trips onboard Amtrak.

Contact Person

- Laura Gundrum at laura_gundrum@nps.gov, 217-391-3215.

This will be the most challenging, yet most rewarding volunteer opportunity you will have.
